

Fundamentals of Paediatric Bioethics and Law

Date: 24th-25th February 2020

Venue: The Barbican Centre, Silk Street, London EC2Y 8DS

Target Audience: Lawyers, Trainee Solicitors, Law students, Consultants, Doctors in Training, Nurses, Medical and Nursing students.

Key aim and objectives: Teaching methods: Plenary sessions

URL: https://courses.gosh.org/Fundamentals_Feb20#init

DAY 1: Monday 24th Introduction to Paediatric Bioethics & Healthcare Law

TIME	SPEAKER	SESSION
8.30 - 9.00	REGISTRATION
09.00-09.15	Joe Brierley	Intro
09.15-10.15	David Archard	Ethical theory Understand the basics of ethics: ethical theory, application & sources of morality
10.15-11.15	Jonathan Montgomery	Basic Child health law Understand the basics of the law, how the courts work and understand the major case law and statutes that apply to child health, especially decision making and clinicians, parents and the child's roles
11.15-11.30	Break
11.30-12.15	Vic Larcher	Ethics and the end of life in childhood Understand how decisions to limit therapy in children are made, how palliative care and permitting choices in end of life care lead to better outcomes
12.15-13.00	Joe Brierley	Innovative therapy and rare diseases New bioethical approaches to n=1, innovative/compassionate therapies
13.00-13.45	Lunch
13.45-14.30	Sophie Pownall	Consent, confidentiality & sources of guidance Master-class in these topics throughout childhood
14.30-15.15	Sarah Aylett	Clinical Ethics Committees In depth understanding of CEC roles in a hospital, bioethical mediation and processes
15.15-15.30	Break
15.30-16.15	Joe Brierley	Public health ethics in Paediatrics – Vaccines, breast milk and the datification of children
16.15-17.00	Giles Birchley	Dispute resolution in child health – shared decision-making, mediation and ethical challenges

Day 2: Tuesday 25 th Practical Paediatric Bioethics & Healthcare Law
08.45 – 9.00	REGISTRATION
09.00-09.15	Joe Brierley	Introduction and recap of the day
09.15-10.45	Owen Arthurs	'From scandal to family centred end of life investigation. The evolution of pathology and end of life investigations by police, coroners and pathologists
10.00-10.45	Stephanie Nimmo	Parent of a complex sick child: legal and ethical aspects
10.45-11.00	Break
11.00-11.45	Sharon Mudhar	The role of the Trust legal team When are the courts approached and how do they work?
11.45-12.30	Sophie Pownall	Meet a Trust solicitor What the hospital solicitor wishes we knew Learn how to write reports, give evidence & behave in Court,
12.30-13.15	Lunch
13.15 – 14.00	Alison Steele /Joe Brierley	Child protection & second opinions: legal and ethical aspects
14.00 – 14.45	Samantha Presland	Meet a barrister What the friendly barrister wishes you knew. Learn how to give evidence in the family/other courts and how to respond to the difficult questions....
14.45-15.00	Break
15.00-15.45	Lord Sumption	Meet the Judge What the Judge wishes you knew....
15.45-16.30	Mr Justice Hayden Vice President of the Court of Protection	At the Coal Face
16.30-16.50	PANEL	ROLE OF THE COURTS IN CHILD HEALTH 2025
The Vic Larcher Symposium
17.00-17.45	Professor Bobbie Farsides	Including Children and families in Child Health Research
17.45-18.30	Prof Sarah Edwards	The future of research ethics in paediatrics and child health
Wine reception		All welcome